Read through each chapter.

Ask God to show you what you need to see.

RDiscuss anything that seems interesting and see where it takes you.

As you read each new chapter, look for common themes, and also discuss how it relates to the others.

And finally ask yourself, “So what?”

Was this just some interesting information? Or is it life changing?

What are you going to do differently from now on?

What choices are you going to need to change?

How is this study going to influence your lifestyle?

How should we do church?

What are the important principles, important characteristics of church that we have to adhere to?

What is flexible, and we can take it or leave it?

How “modern” do we have to be?

How much of our culture should we allow into the church?

How important is unity?

How do you feel about all the denominations we have now?

What have community and church got in common?

How many bodies does Yeshua have?

Whose church is it?

Who is allowed to decide what it should be like?

Is once a week enough?

How important are relationships for a strong church?

How do you make those happen? Or is it just guaranteed because we’re all brothers and sisters?

Is your church like it should be?

If it’s not, whose job is it to change your church?

So what?
